

GERMAN LANGUAGE SYLLABUS – 2020-2021

SYLLABUS FOR THE DEGREE COURSES OF THE FACULTIES OF: ECONOMICS (EXCLUDING THE LATE AFTERNOON/EVENING COURSE, THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROGRAMMES AND THE SERVICE MANAGEMENT PROGRAMME); LAW; BANKING, FINANCE AND INSURANCE SCIENCES; POLITICAL AND SOCIAL SCIENCES; AND THE INTERFACULTY PROGRAMMES: ECONOMICS/LITERATURE AND PHILOSOPHY, BANKING, FINANCE AND INSURANCE SCIENCES/ECONOMICS

COURSE AIMS

The aim of all SeLdA courses is to bring students to the B1 THRESHOLD of the European Framework of Reference for Languages.

In line with the Global Scale of diploma and exam classification according to the European Council levels, this level corresponds to “Independent use of the language” with the following features: B1 - students “can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.; can deal with most situations likely to arise while travelling in an area where the language is spoken; can produce simple connected texts on topics which are familiar or of personal interest; can describe experiences and events, dreams, hopes and ambitions and briefly give reasons and explanations for opinions and plans.”

COURSE CONTENT

To pass the qualification exam, active participation in lessons is recommended, along with individual study, to acquire the receptive and productive skills required to reach or consolidate level B1. During lessons, particular attention will be given to communication in pairs and small groups. Supplementary material will also be distributed. For independent activities, further material is available from the Centro per l’Autoapprendimento (CAP) (self-learning centre) on the third floor of 2/A Via Morozzo della Rocca.

N.B. Attendance to lessons and CAP is advised.

To gain level B1 described above, the course covers:

Learning and developing receptive (listening and reading) and productive communication skills (speaking and writing) through both tutor-led and independent learning activities, with relation to everyday life scenarios.

The achievement of these aims implies the acquisition of:

- Key vocabulary to express oneself in everyday life situations on key topic areas relative to the world of work;
- Knowledge and active use of the key morphosyntactic structures of the German language;
- Structure of main and subordinate clauses (e.g. causal, conditional, indirect interrogative, relative, infinitive, final);
- Declination of nouns and articles, adjectives and possessive pronouns, personal pronouns and adjectives; the nominal group;
- Conjugation of the main regular and irregular verbs (verb tenses: Präsens, Perfekt, Präteritum, Imperativ, würde + Inf., passive voice);
- Main prepositions with dative and accusative;
- Connectives.

The study objectives are achieved using authentic texts related to working life and the language of economics for all language skills.
